To Whom It May Concern,

It is my pleasure to write this letter of recommendation for Jason Cassidy, who has been a key part of our team at Colorado Realty and Property Management, Inc. for the past eight years. During that time, Jason played an important role in our company's success, including serving as part of our leadership team. He has built strong relationships with clients, owners, and industry professionals, consistently demonstrating his expertise in residential sales and the market.

As our company shifts its focus entirely to property management, we have made the strategic decision to separate real estate sales from our core operations. This transition allows both of us to specialize in what we do best—Jason in sales and our team in property management—ultimately creating the best experience for our clients. While this is a change, it is a positive one, reinforcing our shared commitment to expertise and high-quality service.

Jason's deep understanding of the local real estate market, his commitment to client success, and his ability to guide buyers and sellers through seamless transactions make him a trusted resource for anyone looking to buy or sell a home. His professionalism, industry knowledge, and dedication remain unchanged, and we fully support his continued success.

We highly recommend Jason Cassidy to anyone seeking an experienced and knowledgeable real estate professional. His integrity, expertise, and client-focused approach make him an excellent choice.

Sincerely,

Taylor Haas
